BOOK OF THE MONTH

Batman: Hush by Joseph Loeb

I participated in the Summer Reading Program. Apparently, adults were not eligible to win the Nintendo 3DS XL. Of course, they tell me this after all effort I put in the effort to read the most. And no matter how much I protested (okay, maybe how much I whined), I didn't get the 3DS XL. I did, however, read some great books. "Batman: Hush" by Joseph Loeb was definitely one of those great books. It's a classic whodunit story. When you consider the myriad foes of Batman's, this story is sure to make reevaluate your belief in Batman. The plot revolves around a seemingly superior foe somehow uniting all of Batman's enemies, which includes the likes of The Joker, Ra's al Ghul, and even Superman. Batman must use his tactical prowess to get to the bottom of this ordeal as he fights for his life. Any Batman fan is sure to dive into this read and have their world turned upside down by the end. I thought I had a pretty good grasp of superheroes and villains, but this read taught me otherwise, and that's why it's so good!
