NAME: Glenn Bozar

AGE: 62

OCCUPATION: Mayor Pro Tem

As your mayor pro tem, I have successfully worked for more accountability, financial stability and transparency within our City. All my actions and decisions are made in the financial interest of you the taxpayers. To help keep our City safe, I supported and approved the hiring of four additional police officers and technicians funding them through internal cost savings, NOT new taxes. I supported and approved the Fiscal Responsibility Ordinance ensuring long term budget stability.

As Chairman of the Finance Committee, I believe that when revenues are effectively managed the $44 million in revenues the City receives can and should provide the services our City requires without raising taxes. Current issues regarding street repairs, the homeless, and bringing new businesses to the City will be a major focus for me.

When first elected the Daily Bulletin reported, "Clearly this is not a guy who goes along with City Hall, but one who will do his homework and come down on the side of the City's residents".

As your mayor, I will continue to be your taxpayer advocate and watchdog to ensure the City lives within its means yet provides the services and quality of life you demand.
