NAME: Stephen Dunn

AGE: 58

OCCUPATION: Airport Manager

With almost 30 years of direct treasury experience, the bulk of my career was working in the municipal finance field for the cities of Fontana, Buena Park and Upland. I personally taught the current City Treasurer the duties of his office including treasury principals and municipal finance.

My past and current knowledge and experience with Upland as Finance Director, and then City Manager, makes me an ideal candidate for City Treasurer. I know the best way to move our city forward is to make change happen where the decisions are made – as Upland City Treasurer.

As a resident, proud father and expert in municipal government, I have a very personal stake in Upland's success. We're truly a "City of Gracious Living" facing serious fiscal realities that threaten our quality of life.

We deserve a better Upland. My plans have included smart, sustainable measures that promote economic growth and development, upgraded infrastructure, enhanced public safety, and preserve our community services. Effectiveness and efficiencies are important to me.

I have a proven record of success and the expertise to solve our fiscal crisis while protecting our quality of life.

Vote to help Upland thrive – Vote Stephen Dunn for City Treasurer!
