National Novel Writing Month

The Upland Public Library and the NaNoWriMo Pomona Valley Region welcome writers of all ages to this year's NaNoWriMo Kick-Off and "Come Write In!" sessions. Hear from local publishers, authors, and a representative from Inlandia Institute.

"Come Write In!" is a free, drop-in program for would-be writers of all ages. Upland Library will provide the room where you can bring a notebook or a laptop and join other local writers to write communally.

October 29th, 12:00 p.m. NaNoWriMo Kick-Off. Gather with fellow writers to celebrate the beginning of National Novel Writing Month. Speak with the NaNoWriMo Pomona Valley region municipal liaison Jennifer Carey, poet Tim Hatch, author Kevin Ausmus, and publisher Mark Givens from Pelekinesis. A special Young Writers Program Kick-Off starts at 11 a.m.

November 5th, 1:00 p.m. CWI! Session until library closes at 4:00 p.m.

November 12th, 1:00 p.m. Mid Month Meet-up. Touch bases with other authors. Come and meet writers Allen Callaci, author of Heart Like a Starfish, and Cati Porter from Inlandia Institute.

November 19th, 1 p.m.: CWI! Session until library closes at 4:00 p.m.

November 26th, 1 p.m.: CWI! Session until library closes at 4:00 p.m. The last push to finish your novel.

December 3rd, from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., "Thank God It's Over!" (TGIO) party. At the end of NaNoWriMo, come to celebrate our writers' accomplishments. Indie authors Mike Walters and Tamara Miller, and writer Brad Wethern, will be on hand to discuss their books and give readings

The events are open to all!

Snacks and beverages will be provided!

Hope to see you there!
