

Upland Public Library

The background of the cover is a photograph. It shows a pair of bright green plastic-rimmed glasses resting on an open book. The book's pages are white with some text visible. The glasses are positioned diagonally across the frame. The bottom of the image shows a close-up of light-colored sand. The overall lighting is bright, suggesting an outdoor setting.

The Upland Public Library Adult Literacy Program provides free adult literacy tutoring services to Upland residents and the surrounding communities.

Adults 18 and older, who wish to participate as a student or as a volunteer tutor can contact the Adult Literacy Center at (909) 931-4211.

The Literacy Center is located in the beautifully renovated Carnegie Cultural Center.

Friends of the Upland Public Library

The Friends of the Library is a non-profit, charitable organization that supports the library. They are involved in fundraising, advocacy, volunteerism, public awareness campaigns, and literacy programs.

The funds they raise help to support: the Book-Enders Book Club, the annual Summer Reading Program, ongoing story reading programs, teen programs, and adult programs.

You can also help the library by supporting the Friends of the Library in the following ways:

- Make purchases through Amazon's Smile program at <http://www.smile.amazon.com>. Just name the Friends of the Upland Public Library as your organization of choice.
- Volunteer your time by working in the Book Cellar.
- Donate new or gently used books, magazines, movie DVDs, or music CDs.
- Join the Friends of the Library through paid membership. Pick up an application at the library.

Book Cellar

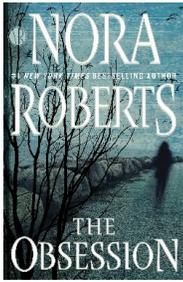

Visit the Friends Book Cellar! They sell new and used books, magazines, and movies. Stop in the next time you visit the Library. Prices start at 25¢!
