

UPLAND PUBLIC LIBRARY CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS

Staff Spotlight

Introducing our Adult Services Librarian, Lorene Broersma. She specializes in reference, archives, local history, and adult programming. If you are curious about Upland's history, stop by the reference desk and ask for Lorene. She will be delighted to show you our collection. If Lorene is unavailable, Patricia is ready to answer your questions. Patricia is our Adult Services Library Associate and a librarian in the making. She assists Lorene with programming, events, and special projects. One of Patricia's goals for the department is to incorporate programming centered around the arts. Their interest for archives and history brings them together to form a great team. They are a dynamic duo who are here to bring innovation and creativity to Adult Services.

Rowling, this is the eighth story in the Harry Potter series and the first official Harry Potter story to be presented on stage. While controversial in its appeal to readers, it remains the number one best-selling children's book since its release on July 31st, 2016. Pick up a copy today and see for yourself!
